NEWSLETTER January 2016

Dear ISHR-ES Member,

We all hope you had a great Festive Break!

ISHR World Congress Buenos Aires April 2016

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at this year's ISHR World Congress in Buenos Aires. We are pleased to announce that the ISHR have awarded Travel Grants of $1500 each to 20 ISHR-ES young researchers to attend this special meeting.

ISHR-ES meeting Hamburg 24-27 July 2017 – call for session proposals

We are pleased to announce that Lucie Carrier and Thomas Eschenhagen will be organizing the 2017 ISHR-ES meeting in Hamburg, 24-27th July 2017. There is an opportunity for all ISHR-ES members to make suggestions for the meeting program - please email your session proposal to d.hausenloy@ucl.ac.uk and l.carrier@uke.de by 1st March 2016. Please kindly fill the session template found in my email.

Future ISHR-ES meetings in Amsterdam 2018 and Torino 2020

We are also pleased to announce that Jolanda van der Velden will be organizing the ISHR-ES 2018 meeting in Amsterdam in Netherlands, and Emilio Hirsch will be organizing the ISHR-ES 2020 meeting in Torino in Italy.

Election of 1 new Council Member from April 2016

This year, Peter Ferdinandy (Hungary) will be leaving the ISHR-ES Council following the ISHR World Congress in April 2016, after 12 years of service to the ISHR-ES. Therefore, we will be holding a ballot in the next couple of weeks to elect 1 new council member from 3 candidates, Carlo Gabriele Tocchetti (Italy), Mauro Giacca (Italy), and Anikó Görbe (Hungary).

Lucie Carrier to be next President-Elect from April 2016

Finally, in April 2016, Rodolphe Fischmeister will take over from David Eisner as the next President of the ISHR-ES. We are pleased to announce that Lucie Carrier will take over from Rodolphe as the next President-elect in April 2016.

If you have any suggestions and comments regarding any aspect of the ISHR-ES please kindly get in contact.

Best wishes for the New Year.
